

Conference Sponsorships

Several types of organizations are interested in promoting new, innovative and ground-breaking solutions to today's challenges in the new economy. Conference sponsorships are offered at three levels: Platinum sponsors will acquire the highest level of visibility and involvement. Platinum sponsors are involved in conference planning, opening remarks, program facilitation and reporting, and will be featured prominently in all conference brochures, mailings and materials. Gold sponsors will have a program speaking priority option, an additional complimentary registration and will also be featured prominently in all conference brochures, mailings and materials. Silver sponsors will be highlighted in conference marketing mailings and the program in addition to receiving two complimentary registrations. All sponsorship levels and benefits are shown in the following table:
